

Press Release

Cabaret Decadance • Live at the Liberty

- Live Song & Dance Revue
- Friday, May 3, 2013
- 8:00 – 10:00 PM
- Tickets $10.00
- All ages welcome
- Half of the proceeds go to the Liberty Theater restoration fund.

Cabaret Decadance brings their comic song-and-dance revue to the Historic Liberty Theater on May 3. It's a vaudeville variety show just like in the old days – but this Cabaret has brought it up to the minute. It's old-time Americana, gypsy jazz'd up for a new century.

Cabaret Decadance is a song and dance revue featuring pantomime dancers and harmonizing vocalists. The band careens through polkas, mambos, rags and swing – always keeping it old-school. Mistress of Ceremonies Clare de Lune and her fellow raconteur, Ms Demeanor are partners in comedy leading the troupe through tightly integrated narrative song & pantomime dance in a distinctive slapstick style.

This show is the first of many taking place at the Historic Liberty Theater this year – to celebrate of the Theater's Centennial, and to raise money for needed renovations to the theater.

Find out more about Cabaret Decadance online at <http://cabaretdecadance.com>